

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

HANOVER

Special C. E. Service—Death of Mrs. William Blackburn—Sunday School Officers and Teachers Confer.

At the congregational church Sunday the services were well attended. At the C. E. meeting in the evening the topic Christian Virtues—III, Zeal, was considered in connection with the consecration service. The leader was Miss Mary Souter. The monthly business meeting of the society was held at the close of the evening service.

Sunday School Officers Meet.
A meeting of the Sunday school officers and teachers was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Angus Park. Plans for improving the efficiency of the Sunday school were discussed. A committee was appointed to look after the special exercises for Easter. Refreshments were served by the hostess and a pleasant social hour followed.

Hon. and Mrs. Angus Park have returned home after visiting friends in Boston. Mrs. Charles Rood has been entertaining her niece, Miss Mary Freeman, of South Coventry, the past week. Mrs. N. A. Bennett was called to South Norwalk Thursday by the illness of her mother.

Skaters took advantage of the fine skating on the Arctic mill pond the first part of the week.

Students attending the Willimantic Normal, Windham High schools and Norwich Free Academy enjoyed Lincoln's day at their homes.

Herman Gitcher spent the week end at his home in Norwich Town. Miss Carrie Burton has been visiting friends in Scotland.

Rev. M. J. R. Fuller was a recent guest of Rev. C. H. Rickerts of Norwich.

Excelsior Coasting.
Many are enjoying the bright moonlight nights and the fine coasting on Bennett Hill.

Fred Gauthier has been spending several days at his home in Norwich. Mr. and Mrs. S. Gallup are much improved in health.

Mrs. L. D. Franklin has been visiting in Fall River, Mass. A guest of her sister, Mrs. William Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Babbitt spent Saturday with Willimantic friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Allen, of Scotland were visitors with their sister, Mrs. Oscar S. Allen, Sunday.

F. Irons has been visiting his sister at Stafford Springs.

Parents' visiting day will be observed in the school next Wednesday.

Death of Mrs. Blackburn.
The community was shocked Wednesday evening to learn of the death of Mrs. Jane Gledhill Blackburn, wife of William Blackburn, death being due to grip and pneumonia. Mrs. Blackburn, who was 77 years old, was born in England. She married William Blackburn Aug. 11, 1841, at the parish church, Huddersfield, Eng., and came to this town 28 years ago. Besides her husband she is survived by two daughters and two sons, Mrs. Amos Blington and Mrs. Friend Dyson of England, Edward Blackburn of Elmville and Charles Blackburn of this town. She has 17 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

YAWBUX VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reith of White Rock, R. I. spent Sunday at O. R. Steadman's.

Mrs. C. P. Miner, who has been ill several months has not been so well this week.

Mrs. Chester S. Maine spent Sunday at Westerly.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Maine of Westerly spent Sunday with Mrs. Maine's parents.

Mrs. Charles Randall was a visitor at Westerly Saturday.

James D. Miner was in Norwich last week and purchased a mule to mate one he purchased last fall.

Many have been harvesting ice this week.

Mrs. Mary A. Maine is spending this month with Mrs. James Lee.

Stiff Joints
Sprains, Bruises
are relieved at once by an application of Sloan's Liniment. Don't rub, just lay on lightly.

"Sloan's Liniment has done more for me than anything I have ever used for stiff joints. I got my hand hurt by badly that I had to stop work right in the midst of the year. I thought at first that I would have to have my hand taken off, but I got a bottle of Sloan's Liniment and cured my hand."

WILSON WHEELER, Morris, Ala.

Good for Broken Sinews
G. Jones, Reidsville, La., writes: "I used Sloan's Liniment for broken sinews after the knee cap caused by a fall and so my great trouble was able to resume work in less than three weeks after the accident."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

Fine for Sprain
Mr. HENRY A. VOELZ, 40 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J., writes: "My friend sprained his ankle so badly that it was black. He laughed when I told him that I had him out in a week. I applied Sloan's Liniment and in four days he was working and said Sloan's was a right good liniment."

Price 25c, 50c, and $1.00
Sloan's Book on horses, cattle, poultry sent free.

Address
Dr. Earl S. Sloan

Boston, Mass., U.S.A.

There was a break in the machinery of the Federal felt mill Thursday morning and the mill was still during the day.

Orville Chesbro entertained a number of young people at his home recently.

SALES FERRY

Auxiliary Votes to Observe Self Denial Week—Village Supply of Ice Secured—Calvin D. Lewis's Funeral.

The local auxiliary of the Woman's Home Missionary society was entertained by Mrs. C. Wilson Harrison at the parsonage Wednesday afternoon. Miss Sarah Latimer, first vice president of the auxiliary, presided. There was an attendance of 16 at the session, out of town visitors being Mrs. Franklin H. Brown of Norwich, with Mrs. G. H. Partridge, Mrs. William F. Irons and Mrs. E. E. Tubbs of Brewster's Neck. After devotional exercises the program opened with The Story of the Golden Bibles by Mrs. Sarah Perkins. This was followed by a reading, Comparison of Mormonism and Mohammedanism by Miss Kate B. Colver. An essay, A Comparison between the Mormon Bible and Our Bible, was given by Mrs. C. Wilson Harrison. The leader was Mrs. C. Wilson Harrison. A discussion, Why Mormonism? was given by Mrs. C. Wilson Harrison. A discussion, Why Mormonism? was given by Mrs. C. Wilson Harrison. A discussion, Why Mormonism? was given by Mrs. C. Wilson Harrison.

The Baptist Young People's union served a chicken pie supper, Friday evening, Feb. 14. In the conference room from 8 until 9 o'clock. Following the supper a Valentine social was held. The proceeds will be used for church expenses.

Meeting and Social.
The monthly business meeting and social of the Baptist Young People's union was held Tuesday evening with Mrs. Harry E. Anderson at the Baptist parsonage.

The United Workers of the Methodist Episcopal church met Wednesday at 2 p. m.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church met Wednesday evening at Mrs. Horace O. Williams.

Wilfred E. Brown and Edward Lamphere are making ready for ice harvesting.

The young people of the Methodist Episcopal church are planning for a Washington social.

Ernest Allison Smith of Norwich, county organizer of the Prohibition party was calling recently on Rev. Arthur H. Winter and other local friends.

Recovering From Injuries.
Mrs. Frank L. Lamphere of Hillside terrace was calling Sunday on her sister-in-law, Mrs. Floyd S. Russell at Laurens hospital, New London. Mrs. Russell has been there for treatment for injuries received by a fall on the ice, December 24th. She expects to be able to return to her home in about a week.

Rev. Arthur H. Coulter, pastor of the Methodist church, preached Sunday morning from the subject, Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Anderson, pastor of the Baptist church, preached Sunday evening from the subject, The Great American, Abraham Lincoln.

Master Clifford Holmes, who has been ill with scarlet fever for the past two weeks is slowly recovering.

Personal Mention.
Truman Chipman, youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Chipman of New London was the guest Friday last of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar F. Coulter.

Deacon and Mrs. William D. Beck with Smith street were Sunday guests of their aunt, Mrs. Sarah Spence, of Montville.

Attorney Hadrian A. Hull of New London was calling Thursday on his wife, Mrs. Mary E. Hull, who resides here with her son, William R. Hull and family.

Mrs. Henry Chesbro has been seriously ill for the last week.

Miss Margaret Farrell of New London is the guest of Mrs. Harry Cady.

Mrs. Harry E. Hanks and daughter Phyllis have returned from the home of Mrs. Hanks' sister, Mrs. Benjamin L. Hull of Jay street, New London.

Charles Q. Eldredge of Tilverton is recovering from a severe attack of grip.

Miss Natalie Hazard of Westerly was a recent guest of Mrs. J. Harold Williams.

LEBANON
K. of P. Installation—Mrs. Alice Peckham Celebrates Eighty-second Birthday.

The Knights of Pythias installed officers Tuesday evening, February 4. John Williams of Willimantic was deputy.

George E. Martin has bought and taken down the large windmill on the R. E. Turner place.

Miss Helen L. Ward of Willimantic was a guest of her cousin, Edith L. Tucker.

Ernest Church of Hartford was the guest of friends here Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society met Thursday evening, February 4. John Williams of Willimantic was deputy.

George E. Martin has bought and taken down the large windmill on the R. E. Turner place.

Miss Helen L. Ward of Willimantic was a guest of her cousin, Edith L. Tucker.

Ernest Church of Hartford was the guest of friends here Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society met Thursday evening, February 4. John Williams of Willimantic was deputy.

George E. Martin has bought and taken down the large windmill on the R. E. Turner place.

Miss Helen L. Ward of Willimantic was a guest of her cousin, Edith L. Tucker.

Ernest Church of Hartford was the guest of friends here Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society met Thursday evening, February 4. John Williams of Willimantic was deputy.

George E. Martin has bought and taken down the large windmill on the R. E. Turner place.

Miss Helen L. Ward of Willimantic was a guest of her cousin, Edith L. Tucker.

Ernest Church of Hartford was the guest of friends here Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society met Thursday evening, February 4. John Williams of Willimantic was deputy.

George E. Martin has bought and taken down the large windmill on the R. E. Turner place.

Miss Helen L. Ward of Willimantic was a guest of her cousin, Edith L. Tucker.

OLD MYSTIC

Friends Mail Post Cards to Bride—Church Societies Active—Personal Items.

About fifty relatives and friends of Mrs. Avery Lee Coles (Amy Irene Eldridge of Old Mystic) started a postal card shower on its way from Old Mystic to Dilke, Saskatchewan, Friday, Feb. 7th. The cards probably reached Mrs. Coles a week later, when doubtless she was happy to read the many varied messages from her old home friends. Mr. and Mrs. Coles were married January 31, at Regina, Saskatchewan.

Chicken Pie Supper.
The Baptist Young People's union served a chicken pie supper, Friday evening, Feb. 14. In the conference room from 8 until 9 o'clock. Following the supper a Valentine social was held. The proceeds will be used for church expenses.

Meeting and Social.
The monthly business meeting and social of the Baptist Young People's union was held Tuesday evening with Mrs. Harry E. Anderson at the Baptist parsonage.

The United Workers of the Methodist Episcopal church met Wednesday at 2 p. m.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church met Wednesday evening at Mrs. Horace O. Williams.

Wilfred E. Brown and Edward Lamphere are making ready for ice harvesting.

The young people of the Methodist Episcopal church are planning for a Washington social.

Ernest Allison Smith of Norwich, county organizer of the Prohibition party was calling recently on Rev. Arthur H. Winter and other local friends.

Recovering From Injuries.
Mrs. Frank L. Lamphere of Hillside terrace was calling Sunday on her sister-in-law, Mrs. Floyd S. Russell at Laurens hospital, New London. Mrs. Russell has been there for treatment for injuries received by a fall on the ice, December 24th. She expects to be able to return to her home in about a week.

Rev. Arthur H. Coulter, pastor of the Methodist church, preached Sunday morning from the subject, Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Anderson, pastor of the Baptist church, preached Sunday evening from the subject, The Great American, Abraham Lincoln.

Master Clifford Holmes, who has been ill with scarlet fever for the past two weeks is slowly recovering.

Personal Mention.
Truman Chipman, youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Chipman of New London was the guest Friday last of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar F. Coulter.

Deacon and Mrs. William D. Beck with Smith street were Sunday guests of their aunt, Mrs. Sarah Spence, of Montville.

Attorney Hadrian A. Hull of New London was calling Thursday on his wife, Mrs. Mary E. Hull, who resides here with her son, William R. Hull and family.

Mrs. Henry Chesbro has been seriously ill for the last week.

Miss Margaret Farrell of New London is the guest of Mrs. Harry Cady.

Mrs. Harry E. Hanks and daughter Phyllis have returned from the home of Mrs. Hanks' sister, Mrs. Benjamin L. Hull of Jay street, New London.

Charles Q. Eldredge of Tilverton is recovering from a severe attack of grip.

Miss Natalie Hazard of Westerly was a recent guest of Mrs. J. Harold Williams.

LEBANON
K. of P. Installation—Mrs. Alice Peckham Celebrates Eighty-second Birthday.

The Knights of Pythias installed officers Tuesday evening, February 4. John Williams of Willimantic was deputy.

George E. Martin has bought and taken down the large windmill on the R. E. Turner place.

Miss Helen L. Ward of Willimantic was a guest of her cousin, Edith L. Tucker.

Ernest Church of Hartford was the guest of friends here Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society met Thursday evening, February 4. John Williams of Willimantic was deputy.

George E. Martin has bought and taken down the large windmill on the R. E. Turner place.

Miss Helen L. Ward of Willimantic was a guest of her cousin, Edith L. Tucker.

Ernest Church of Hartford was the guest of friends here Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society met Thursday evening, February 4. John Williams of Willimantic was deputy.

George E. Martin has bought and taken down the large windmill on the R. E. Turner place.

Miss Helen L. Ward of Willimantic was a guest of her cousin, Edith L. Tucker.

Ernest Church of Hartford was the guest of friends here Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society met Thursday evening, February 4. John Williams of Willimantic was deputy.

George E. Martin has bought and taken down the large windmill on the R. E. Turner place.

Miss Helen L. Ward of Willimantic was a guest of her cousin, Edith L. Tucker.

Ernest Church of Hartford was the guest of friends here Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society met Thursday evening, February 4. John Williams of Willimantic was deputy.

George E. Martin has bought and taken down the large windmill on the R. E. Turner place.

Miss Helen L. Ward of Willimantic was a guest of her cousin, Edith L. Tucker.

Ernest Church of Hartford was the guest of friends here Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society met Thursday evening, February 4. John Williams of Willimantic was deputy.

ROAD SOCIETY

(Stonington)

Grange Appoints Celebration Committee—Harry N. Crandall Stationed at New Haven Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Champlin and son will soon move from their farm, which has been sold to the Daniel Brown farm, near Waterbury, Conn. L. S. Silas Wheeler went to New London on Monday, called there by the critical illness of his brother, Judge Ralph Wheeler.

The committee from the Stonington grange for the celebration at Stonington, held in 1914 is Master Arthur G. Wheeler, Seth N. Williams and Amos G. Hewitt.

Miss Jennie B. Noyes has returned from a business trip to New York. Leon Pierce has been at Lower Pawcatuck recently, visiting his sister, Miss Mary Pierce.

A fine supper was given by John Pinto at the Rathbun cottage at Quilaburg, at which about 20 guests were present.

The grange meeting was held Wednesday evening at the church parlors. Rev. H. R. Palmer, new lecturer, presided. The new programme for the year and a play was discussed.

Preached at Fellowship Meeting.
The fellowship meeting was held at Westerly on Wednesday, when Rev. G. S. Spaulding of Rocky Hill, Conn. preached an excellent sermon in the morning. He and Mrs. Spaulding were entertained on Tuesday night at Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Palmer's on Wednesday night at Rev. and Mrs. Dwight Stone's, and on Thursday at Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Palmer's.

Rev. Joseph L. Peacock preached again on Sunday.

Miss Priscilla Billings was at home over Sunday from Willimantic.

The farmers about here are cutting ice and storing it.

Several of the grange attended the Avondale grange and enjoyed the third and fourth degree work and supper.

Mrs. Stephen Palmer was a recent guest of Miss Julia E. Smith in Westerly.

Sunday school has voted to give a dollar, as solicited, to the National Child Welfare Press Service.

Benjamin Remington of Providence visited Captain Eliza Clark Wednesday.

Mrs. Jane Leader of Griswold was a recent guest of relatives in Quilaburg and Stonington.

Miss Alice Finnegan of Ledyard spent Saturday with Miss Adelaide Clark.

Stationed at New Haven Lighthouse.
Harry N. Crandall has been stationed at New Haven Lighthouse, two and a half miles from land.

The Home Missionary society is at work on the new building in their neighborhood, and will meet as often as possible for sewing.

Francis C. Dixon sends word that he is enjoying the southern climate, and the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Allen.

Reservoir Work Held Up.
Work has been suspended on account of the cold weather during the past week on the plant for water supply for the city of Stonington. The reservoir has a storage of about two acres and will fill the tank by its own force, being several feet higher than the reservoir.

Ralph E. Wheeler and Mrs. Silas Wheeler were in New London Tuesday to see Judge Ralph Wheeler.

GLASCO

Observance of Lincoln Sunday—Schoolhouses Filled—Accident.

Mrs. E. G. Lague of Jewett City was a recent guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wilbur.

Mrs. Hattie Eccleston who went to South Norwalk, week long, to visit her son and family is seriously ill.

Mrs. W. W. Billings was a week end guest of Mrs. A. Ray Burton.

Word was received here Sunday of the death of Mrs. Braden, a life long resident of the adjoining village of Voluntown.

Charles Q. Eldredge is in South Windham helping care for her husband's mother.

The ladies of the Bethel society are planning a social.

Lincoln Sunday.
Rev. John Thompson gave his people a fine sermon Sunday morning. The E. L. in the evening was led by the pastor, Rev. John Thompson. Papers were read on that subject, and tributes to the emancipator's memory from the great men of the day were read by the different churches.

Several icehouses have been filled with eight inch ice during the recent cold wave.

Rev. J. Thompson was in Voluntown Wednesday attending the funeral of Mrs. Bradford.

Henry Richmond was callers on friends in Jewett City Tuesday.

VOLUNTOWN
Box Social—Whist Club Meets—Funerals—Ice Harvested.

Saturday evening at the chapel a box social was given by the ladies of the church. The boxes, which were very pretty and proved to be well filled, were sold for the benefit of the church. The boxes were disposed of at a pleasant social evening was passed, ending a very successful affair.

The icehouse of the Briggs Manufacturing company at Bechdale has been filled with seven-inch ice. They are also filling their icehouse at Beach pond.

Meeting of Whist Club.
The Home Whist club held their usual weekly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Clarke at Bechdale. The following winners were announced: Ladies—First, Miss Mary Evelyn; second, Mrs. H. E. Herbert; Men—First, Edmond Herbert; second, E. E. Clarke.

Lenten Devotions.
Lenten devotions were held at St. Thomas' church Sunday. A service, consisting of the rosary, a brief instruction and benediction. These devotions will be continued this (Saturday) evening at 7 o'clock and Sunday evening at the same hour.

Funeral of Mrs. Bradford.
Funeral services were held Wednesday at 1 o'clock at St. Thomas' church. The Rev. John Thompson of Bethel, Me. church conducted the services, assisted by Rev. William Quigley of the Baptist church. A quartette composed of Miss Laura Maguire, Mrs. J. L. Herbert, George E. Smith and Herbert Rice sang. The burial was at the cemetery. A quartette composed of Miss Laura Maguire, Mrs. J. L. Herbert, George E. Smith and Herbert Rice sang. The burial was at the cemetery.

Pendleton Hill.
Irving Burton and daughter Ethel were in Ashaway, Sunday.

B. G. Palmer was a visitor in Westerly Monday.

The Ladies' Sewing society met at the parsonage Thursday.

Richard Ray, the little son of Birdsey G. Palmer, has been ill.

Misses Winifred and Cecil Palmer, teachers in Apponaug, R. I. spent over Sunday with their mother, Mrs. G. E. Palmer.

Mrs. Mills and son Ellen are recovering from severe attacks of the grip.

from the cemetery dinner was served to those present by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Ritchie. Those attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bushnell of Norwich Town, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Bushnell, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilcox of Norwich Town, Mr. and Mrs. Barstow and Mr. and Mrs. Allen of Willimantic, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brown and Mrs. Dwight Bromley of North Stonington, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grant of Norwich Town, Mr. and Mrs. George Grant, William Grant and daughter Jessie of Taftville.

Charles Bennett.
The funeral of Charles Bennett took place Monday morning from St. Thomas' church, where a requiem high mass was sung by Rev. P. J. Morrissey. Burial was in St. Thomas' cemetery. The bearers were Emory Dupont, J. D. LaChapelle, George E. Smith and Ernest Perkins.

Ledyard
Lincoln Day Exercises—Isaac Chapman Alert at 77—J. H. Belden Gets Twelve Foxes.

Miss Mollie Ball, teacher in district No. 4 observed Lincoln day by the following programme: Song, America, by school; reading, Life of Abraham Lincoln, by Rev. D. Holdridge; story, Lincoln and the Pig, Calvin R. Main; song, Flag of the Free school; recitation, address at Gettysburg, school; story, How Lincoln Received the Name of Honest Abe, David Geer; song, Birthdays of Lincoln, school; story, How Lincoln Saved Jack Armstrong from Being Hanged, Carl Holdridge; song, Suwanee River, school.

Miss Arline Collins of Montville was an over Sunday guest of Miss Ethel Hewitt.

Miss Mabel Hargrove of Norwich was a guest Friday night and Saturday of Miss Susan Lamb.

E. Walter Phillips of Norwich transacted business at the probate office on Friday.

77th Birthday.
Isaac Chapman observed his 77th birthday Sunday. Mr. Chapman was present at church and is enjoying good health. He was a teacher for many years and his memory is excellent. He was present at the 200th anniversary held in Norwich in 1859 and remembers it well.

Mrs. Edward Avery, who has been ill is a little improved.

Frank G. Maynard visited relatives in Preston Sunday.

William L. Ailyn, Charles A. Gray, Asa J. Sheldon and Frederick W. Burton attended the recent pomological meeting held in Hartford.

His Twelfth Fox.
James H. Belden, the veteran fox catcher, has added another pet to his collection, making twelve foxes he has caught since last fall. Mr. Belden has done better than some with dogs and cats.